Goodwood Milford Fund Portfolio Review

Investment Grade Corporate Bonds - The Fund's June and year-to-date returns were +0.29% and +3.78% compared to the FTSE TMX Canadian Universe Bond Broad Composite Index ("FTSE") of +1.13% and -0.38%, respectively. June was a volatile month for fixed income. The month began with a rally that took the US 10-year yield down approximately 30 bps to 4.20% (yields down, price up) at mid-month. However, after the June 12 FOMC 'no cut' rate decision, US yields rose steadily to end the month around 4.34%. The FOMC rate decision contained the latest Summary of Economic Projections which included updates to the "dot plots" that set out Committee members forecasts on future levels of GDP, inflation, unemployment, and targets for the Fed Funds rate. In our view, the market was surprised (which precipitated the mid month sell-off) when the latest "dot plot" showed a median forecast of only one rate cut in 2024, down from 3 cuts in the March publication.

In Canada, the Bank of Canada (the "BoC") cut the policy interest rate by 25 bps on June 5. The BoC noted that they have gained confidence that inflation was easing towards their 2% inflation target and that monetary policy no longer needs to be as restrictive. The BoC cut was the first amongst the G7 nations. The ECB followed the BoC cut with a similar 25 bps cut. Yields in the Canadian bond market followed a similar path to the US with a start of the month rally in the 10-year to 3.26%. After the FOMC rate decision, yields rose to 3.66%. The top performing sectors in the FTSE in June were long Provincials and Canadas.

High Yield Bonds - The US high-yield bond ETF (iShares iBoxx $ High Yield Corporate Bond ETF) returned +0.95% in June, and the year-to-date return was +2.18%.

Equities - The S&P/TSX Composite TR Index ("TSX") June and year-to-date returns were -1.42% and +6.05%. The Dow Jones Industrial Average ("DJIA") June and year-to-date returns were +1.23% and +4.79%. The TSX and the DJIA indices pulled back slightly from the all-time highs reached in May while the NASDAQ and the S&P in the US hit fresh new all-time highs in June.

Preferred Shares - The S&P/TSX Preferred Share Index returned -0.02% in June and +14.19% year-to-date. The Fund currently holds no preferred shares.

As a reminder, the Fund provides weekly & monthly liquidity and is open to new investors.
